

I am opposed to the Consumer Bankers Association petition to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. The current legislation should remain intact. The "established business relationship" clause in the federal statute is unacceptable and should not be included in Indiana's law.